

“EXCLUSION OF CYBER ATTACK”

Clause no. CE001 of the Royal Belgian Association of Marine Insurers dd. 27 November 2003

Free and non-committal translation

In case of dispute regarding the interpretation of the wording, the Dutch and/or French version prevail

1. Subject only to point 2 below, in no case shall this insurance cover loss damage liability or expense directly or indirectly caused by or contributed to by or arising from the use or operation, as a means for inflicting harm, of any computer, computer system, computer software programme, malicious code, computer virus or process or any other electronic system.
2. Where this clause is endorsed on policies covering risks of war, civil war, revolution, rebellion, insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, or any hostile act by or against a belligerent power, or terrorism or any person acting from a political motive, point 1 shall not operate to exclude losses (which would otherwise be covered) arising from the use of any computer, computer system or computer software programme or any other electronic system in the launch and/or guidance system and/or firing mechanism of any weapon or missile.
